Kodava Samaja Bengaluru

New Policy for Competitions at Kodava Samaja Bengaluru

The below policy holds good for all Kodava Samaja Bengaluru competitions – both sports and cultural

1. Players/participants Eligibility

- Players/participants Male or Female must be living in the Sangha area.
- A Players/participants must have a house (Owned or Rented) in which he/she is residing. That is to say he/she should be working from that home and comes back to reside there after each day's work.
- There may be a case where the spouse and children are living at that address due to educational purposes of the children while the member / players/participants may be shuttling between Kodagu and Bangalore or other places of work. Such players/participants/members are eligible.
- Unmarried children of members (such members who are currently residing in the sangha area) may play/participate even if they are studying/ working elsewhere. This is applicable for unmarried children who are studying/working outside Bengaluru.

- e) Persons who have a house in a particular Sangha jurisdiction area but have permanently moved to Kodagu or elsewhere by giving his/her home on rent or even keeping it locked are not eligible.
 - f) Professional players/participants under 35 years of age are not eligible even if residing in the area.
 - g) Players/participants residing in border areas between Sanghas and enjoying dual membership will have to get a NOC from the President of the Sangha they are not representing in. The choice of which Sangha to play for in such situations rests with the players/participants.
 - h) New KSB members must have resided in the given address for at least six months before participating, however address changes for existing members can be made before the sports cutoff date.
- a) Guest Players/participants. No guest players/participants are allowed.

2. Penalty for Violation

- a) This policy can only succeed if all Sanghas cooperate and if they truthfully field teams meeting all the criteria. The Team lists sent by the Sanghas will be scrutinized and verified with the help from Sanghas by the Sports Committee.
- b) After verification the team list will be made public for all the Sanghas to make note of. Any objections should be raised within a stipulated time after which the lists will be considered as final, and no changes will be allowed. During the course of the matches even if some players/participants are injured, they will have to make replacement from within the original list provided before submission date.
- c) After all the above measures, if some falsification is still found, such teams will be disqualified from the tournament and will not be allowed to field a team in any sport for one year.

3. Undertaking by Sangha Presidents. The submitted players/participants list has to be verified, and the respective Sangha President has to sign off on the correctness of the lists being submitted by the respective Sangha.
